TESTIMONY COMES FROM ALL OVER TEXAS

A. W. Camp, a Prominent Caddo Oil Man, Adds His Praise to the Remarkable Results of the Great "Plant Juice."

Arthur W. Camp, for six years war correspondent in the Orient for the Hearst papers, born at Dallas, where his father located in early pioneer days, and after whom Camp street was named, writes from Longview. Texas, headquarters for the Texas Caddo Land & OH company, which he promoted, regarding benefits obtained from "Plant Julee!"

Julee:

"I have been so astonished by the merits, immediate and marvelous results obtained from using 'Plant Julee' in a malarial condition, complicated with a disordered stomach, indigestion, nervousness, and accompanying ilsorders, the first few doses afforded me the most wonderful relief from my general depressed condition, that I feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to indorse and recommend to my friends 'Plant Julee' as truly possessing wonderful merits."

"Forward to nature" is the slogan

"Forward to nature" is the slogan that is being used in the Texas Plant Juice campaign. It is expressive of good. I know of no tonic that comes as near putting back into man the vital forces that have left him by reasons of stekness and overwork."

Mr. Camp's, the demonstrator of Keily & Pollard's drug store, 201 N. Oregon, said:

"Do you know why it is that the fame of 'Piant Juice' has aprend like wildfire throughout our great cities? It is because every one who has tested it or has seen wimt it will do has a good word for it, and never misses a chance to speak it. The history of 'Piant Juice', the way in which Colonel Frank Dillingham, the manufacturer, first made it and the great events that followed have been the subjects of numerous newspaper articles throughout imperion. The story is an interesting one and I always like to tell it. But here is something more to the point. 'Plant Juice' is now being introduced into Temas, starting at Houston, and it will sweep the state. It has already established a firm hold in Texas. It is reviving and revitalizing hundreds of citizens in all walks of life. Take the man or woman who suffers with heartburn, water-brash, who has a coated tongue, sour or bitter taste in the mouth of mornings, who has no appetite, is grouchy, irritable, has headaches, is tired, listless, lacking in energy, has blues, melancholy, despondency, a feeling of fullness about the stomach and liver, subject to colicky pains in the stomach and intestines, formation of gas, belching, palpitation of the heart, pains in the side, chest or back and lolns, is restless, sleepless, yellow skin, pimples, dark spots on the body, twitches of rheumatism, cloudy or 'muddy' urine, dimness of sight, puffiness of the eyes, thick, sluggish blood; take the person suffering with any or all of those symptoms and he will find them vanish under the use of 'Plant Juice' as does the mist under the sun. It is the greatest vegetable tonic known, a mild, speedy corrective for derangement of stomach, liver, kidnerys and blood. Come to Kelly & Pollard's, 201 N. Madison, Wis., June 16,—Senator La-Follette's defeat in the Chicago convention is attributed by governor F. E. McGovern to the "mismanagement of his campaign manager." Governor McGovern, in a long statement in justification of his candidacy for temporary chalrman of the national convention, held figures tending to show that had he been chairman, the net Taft strength would have been 480 and the net Roosevelt strength 470. "Had I been elected temporary chairman." said governor McGovern. "I would have ruled that the 78 contested delegates should have been disqualified until lawfully seated. U. S. SENATORS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 26.—With the organization of the progressive party definitely under way, former president Roosevelt returned to his bome yesterday from Chicago. He was smiling and said he was in fighting trim. He made it clear that the new party would be pushed ahead with full steam on. His neighbors in Oyster Bay, who have followed the political fortunes of Co. Roosevelt for a good many years, did not know whether to receive him as a returning champion or a vanquished warrior, but he assured those who saw him that he was not in the least dismayed by the happenings at Chicago.

Cot. Roosevelt was greatly pleased at the news from Baltimore. He showed how closely he was keeping in touch with the situation there by reciting the vote by which William J. Bryan had been defeated a short time before in his contest with Alton B. Parker over the temporary chairmashlp.

Col. Rooserelt said that apparently the issue among the Democrats was fundamentally as that in the Republican convention. Should serious differences develop, it is his belief that the new party will profit thereby, in the way of receiving support from disaffected Democrats. With this in mind, Col. Rooserelt and his associates will take no definite steps until the Democratic convention has come to an end. He said the first meeting of the temporary committee on organization would not be held until the Democrats have named their ticket, probably the latter part of next week in New York. Its chief work will be to fix the date for the National convention and issue the call.

"There is one thing which I would like to make clear," said Col. Roosevelt. "It is that the temporary committee which was announced yesterday is in no sense a national committee in is in no sense a national committee in the ordinary capacity of the term. It was selected simply for the purpose of taking the first step and calling the convention."

Each state, he said, would elect its ewn hational committeeman, and there was no guarantee that any man on the list would be the representative of his state after the convention.

The only action which will be taken pending the news from Baltimore, Col. Roosevelt said, would be the organization of party machinery in the various states.

He said that Timothy L. Woodruff and Wm. Halpin were already at work with the formation of the New York organization. Col. Rooseveit said the founders of the new party hoped to take over a good measure of strength from the Democratic party.

Denver Colo., June 26.—E. P. It is plenned that afterwards a state convention of the party will be held to select a full ticket for submission to the people in the August primaries and for the election of Colorado delegates to the national third party convention to be called by Col. Roosevelt's organization.

Mr. Costigan arrived yesterday morn-ing from Chicago. Almost all the other members of the protosting dele-gation have returned. BRYAN STILL MORE THAN A MERE DELEGATE AT BALTIMORE CONVENTION

His Friends Do Not Consider His Defeat Tuesday Eliminates Him From Possibility of Nomination-He Refuses to Attend Night Session of the Convention-Much Clark Talk.

Many of the other recognized leaders Many of the other recognized leaders of Democracy are wondering what will be the final power of Bryan's eloquence; whether that gift which inspired him to the famous "Crown of thorns and cross of gold" speech and won the presidential nomination for him in 1896, again will be able to rally the party's support around him as the standard bearer.

Is Bryan's Hat in the Ring!

Is Bryan's Hat in the Ring! Is Bryan's Hat in the Ring!

Seven of Democracy's strongest men are avowed candidates for the presidential nomination. None of them can do more than hope to receive the required 728 votes on the first ballot. Mr. Bryan has said repentedly that he was in no sense a candidate, yet he entered the convention as a candidate from Nebruska. Since his arrival here Sunday night, Mr. Bryan has diplomatically evaded several offers of friendly delegates to draw him out on the subpect. It would seem from his demeanor that his greatest interest was to gain control of the convention for the progressives and prevent the nomination of a reactionary.

As the chairman of the committee on resolutions he will have opportunity to speak in presenting the platform. Right after that the nomination for president will be in order.

More Bryan Flowers.

Mr. Bryan at the close of his speech yesterday said:

"The Democratic party has led this fight until it has stimulated the Republican hosts to go and do likewise and at last appear willing to trust the people with control of their own government.

"I repeat we have been traveling in the wilderness. We now come in sight of the promised land. During all the many hours of darkness progressive Democracy has been the people's pillar of fire by night.

Democracy has been the people's pillar of fire by night.

"I pray you, delegates, now that dawn of day has come, do not rob the people of the right to have our party as their pillar of cloud by day."

This brought the Bryan sympathizers to their feet and Mr. Bryan let it stand as his concluding words.

Nebraskan Still Hopeful.

The Nebraskan Still Hopeful.

The Nebraskan did not attend the night session of the convention to hear iddge Parker's speech, but remained in his rooms to attend to correspondence and confer with his friends. Later Mr. Bryan purposed joining in the deliberations of the platform committee.

Mr. Bryan was apparently in cheerful humor notwithstanding his defeat. He carefully refrained from giving any suggestion as to his future course of action in the convention.

While talking with some friends over the temporary chairmanship fight, Mr. Bryan remarked:

"Well, the machine did not skid."

"But that is not saying that it will not," was suggested.

"I have not the gift of prophecy," said Mr. Bryan, "but I have a knowledge of history."

Bryan on Resolutions Committee. Mr. Bryan was in conference with enator Kern when informed that judge Parker had expressed the wish that every delegate would vote for the Nebraskan as head of the resolutions committee. He sent out word that he did not care to make any statement regarding judge Parker's remarks until he had read the whole speech. That Mr. e had read the whole speech. That Mr. Brynn would accept if the committee men selected him as chairman of the platform committee was taken for granted by Mr. Bryan's friends.

The conservative element is practically prepared to accept a redical candidate. They frankly admit that to diante. They frankly admit that to name a conservative or socalled reactionary, would strengthen the hand of Col. Theodore Roosevelt in his organization of a third party. This the leaders are anxious to avoid.

The turn of affairs in the last few days is regarded here as decidedly favorable to speaker Clark's candidacy.

The straightout Wilson delegates threw their support solidly to Mr. Bryan in his fight against judge Parker. This, the leaders figured, would make the conservative element choose Clark in preference to the New Jersey man as the progressive candidate.

There is a report that the 50 votes of New York, a controlling factor in the situation, would go to Clark. The report is based largely upon the action of New York in votling against Bryan. The fact that the Missouri delegation also gave Parker a majority of its votes—22 to 14—quickly called out reports of a coalition of interests between New York and Missouri.

Clark Talk Lends.

This naturally led to talk of Clark for president and a New York man for vice president. The man mentioned most in this connection was senator O'Gorman. There is talk also that the Underwood forces might come into this comhination, the plan being that Mr. Underwood should have the speakership of the bouse in the event of Mr. Clark's elevation to the presidency. Most of the Underwood states are said to be against Mr. Bryan.

The Clark people declare that with New York and the Underwood forces united under the speaker's banner, the latter would have more than the necessary number of votes to nominate.

There can be no doubt that Mr. Bryan is the central figure here, as Mr. Roosevelt was in Chicago. The difference is that the latter made his fight outside the convention to win the Republican commination for himself as a leading progressive, while the former is going late the Democratic convention to wage a battle of progressiveism itself.

"The result of the balloting on the temporary chairmanship," said senator elect Ollie James, of Kentucky, means but one thing—that Clark will be nominated on the first ballot."

Mr. Bryan in his speech Tuesday made a strong point which elicited unbounded enthusiasm. He declared that the sinister influences which had been at work in the Republican national convention at Chicago were operating even more brazenty at Baltimore. But he added, the Democratic party could not by run by the Ryans or bought by the Belmonts. Mr. Bryan plainly was under stress as he made his plea Tuesday to the convention to turn down the Wall street interests, which he declared, were represented in the selection of Judge Parker as temporary chairman.

of presidential favorites, many more of the visitors joined the throngs on the city streets.

Managers of candidates supplied the ammunition for the noise. A leafled with complete words and music of the "Houn' Dawg" song was passed out by a hearse male chorus of Missourians. Harmon boosters hunded out copies of the famous hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Hinds." The leaflet recited the "story of a hymn" told by governor Harmon himself and in it he explained that the singing of this "beloved old tune" at a farmers' pienic in Ohio returned him to the governorship.

The Underwood cry, "Underwood, the party's best asset," merely made the claim without a tune and the southerners quickly realized the importance of some sort of music. "Dixie" supplied the need,

"Win with Wilson," an alliteration supplied the yell, and a four deck postiver was somewhat more pretentious than the Marshall designation of their candidate brought to Baltimore by 1.200 Hoosiers—"Indiana's choice."

Arriving delegations blocked the streets, crowding hotel entrances where candidates had established headquarters, so that it took a football rush of from 10 to 20 minutes for the enthusiastic to gain entrance.

Confetti, paper wads and penny scrambles, with figorous wielders of feather "ticklers," managed to keep up the interest of the crowd in the streets.
